

Benefits of Membership in new bern historical society

- * Member discount prices on the following:
 - Ghostwalk
 - Biennial Heritage Homes Tour
 - Lunch & Learn series
 - Special historical programs
 - Guided tours of Battlefield Park
 - Harry Goodman Battlefield Adventure Day
- * Members receive first notice on our very popular (and frequently sold out!) programs
 - 6-8 Lunch & Learn programs per year
 - Annual Lore Lecture featuring nationally known historical speakers
 - Annual Ed Bearss presentation featuring nationally renowned historian
 - Social events exclusively for members, including the Volunteer and New Member Social and the Annual Awards Banquet at the New Bern Country Club
- * Free admission to New Bern Battlefield Park, site of the Civil War Battle of New Bern; guided tours for only $5 per person
- * Annual Journal of curated historical articles by local authors
- * Quarterly Newsletter highlighting current and upcoming programs
- * Opportunities to volunteer for programs that are important to the community and to work with other like-minded, caring members
- * The satisfaction of knowing that your membership supports the preservation and celebration of New Bern's heritage, artifacts, and properties:
 - The Attmore-Oliver House, circa 1800, and Heritage Gardens
 - New Bern Battlefield Park, site of the Civil War Battle of New Bern
 - The Roberts House, circa 1908
 - The Manley-Ward House, circa 1901
 - The Henderson-Dunn (Birdsong) House, circa 1850-1870
 - Over 5000 accessioned historical photos, artifacts, and furnishings

We bring history to life!